

The Really Really Busy Person's Book On Parenting

Rob Parsons OBE and Katharine Hill

MuddyPearl

'They grow up so fast!'

As parents we live each day at such a pace. One minute we are juggling the dawn scramble for p.e. kit, packing lunchboxes and dealing with toddler tantrums in the supermarket queue, and then, before we know it, they are filling in job applications. Did we do it right? Did we do it well?

There is no one way to be the perfect parent. But there are a hundred ways to be a great parent. This hilarious, engaging little book is packed full with great ideas to help any really really busy parent find that extra minute, to enjoy their kids and to make the very most of every precious moment. Within these few pages are ideas, strategies and principles that can revolutionise not only the way we parent, but also the way we feel about our parenting.

Authors
