

Called

God's purpose for your life and how that changes absolutely everything

Jonny Gumbel

There are many things which all of us are called to do, like being kind and compassionate, sharing what we have with those in need and making disciples of all nations. But God also has a specific calling for each of us, things which only we can do.

"In the years I've been a pastor, I have found calling to be the topic people want to explore and talk about almost more than any other ... God has a purpose for every human being, and this purpose is discoverable. Nothing is more important than for us to discern and do it.

In Called, Jonny gives us the principles and guidance we desperately need in order to make some of the most important decisions in our lives."

From the Foreword by Archie Coates, Vicar Holy Trinity Brompton.

Each chapter explores a different story from the Bible, focussing in on a character as they discover their calling. Witness their struggles, their triumphs and their achievements as they follow God's path for them, either reluctantly or without hesitation, with joy, terror or grumpiness, and often with a combination of those feelings! Each chapter offers a fresh perspective to us on what it means to be called by God, whether we're grappling with doubt and fear or ready for the next adventure. Prepare to be challenged, inspired and ultimately transformed by God.

For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them' (Ephesians 2:10, ESV).

Author

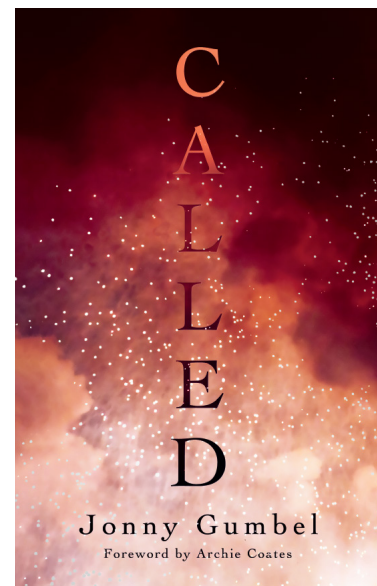

Jonny Gumbel studied theology at Oriel College, Oxford and Kings College, London. He was part of the pioneering team which established St Peter's Brighton church plant, serving there for twelve years, first as Curate and then as Associate Vicar, before leaving to follow a new calling in 2022. He taught theology and preaching at St Mellitus College and is now Rector of Christ Church, Rio de Janeiro. Jonny is married to Tara and they have four children.
